

MOORE Canadian Overview

SECOND QUARTER 2021

The quarterly Canadian Overview is a newsletter produced by the Canadian member firms of Moore North America. These articles are meant to inspire conversation and collaboration throughout Canada and beyond.

Marcil Lavallée

HOW TO OBJECT TO A CRA ASSESSMENT

BY DAN WILSON FROM SEGAL

The ability to object to a Canada Revenue Agency (“CRA”) assessment is an integral part of the Canadian tax system and is available to all Canadian taxpayers. There are many reasons for filing an objection, and is worth pursuing if you disagree with the auditor’s results.

Learn how to file a notice of objection and other key items to consider.

TRANSPARENCY IN TAX

BY BRAD BERRY FROM MOWBREY GIL

Tax transparency is integral to fighting tax evasion and money laundering, but with increased measures extending beyond corporations, some are concerned over the outcome of such legislation.

Mowbrey Gil’s Brad Berry shares his insights into the debate of transparency v. privacy.

CLOUD-BASED ACCOUNTING

BY DIANNA THORNE, CPA, CA – TARGETED ACCOUNTING, IN PARTNERSHIP WITH SEGAL

The accounting industry is incorporating more cloud-based applications to integrate and automate processes, saving time and energy while delivering superior results.

Learn more about the innovations in the industry and how these advancements are impacting accounting departments.

SOME GST AND HST QUIRKS YOU MIGHT NEED TO KNOW (PART 2)

CONTRIBUTED BY MARCIL LAVALLEE

The Excise Tax Act (ETA) has some less well-known rules that may affect your business, including some that affect medical clinics and health services.

Check out the second half of these unusual GST and HST rules from the ETA.

\(Click here to view Part One\)

MOORE

Moore North America (Moore NA) is one of five regional members of Moore Global Network Limited (MGNL). Moore NA currently has 35 member firms across North America, including five in Canada. For a complete listing of Moore NA Canadian member firms, click here.

Additional information, including thought leadership and other key collaboration opportunities, available at moore-na.com.